The author elegantly and movingly elicits stories from the survivors of the country's long civil war (in particular women). In doing so it offers a glimpse of those voices that have been silenced by the larger narrative and offers a much more complex picture of what it is to be a Tamil and a Tamil-speaking Muslim than anything offered by elites on either side of the cultural divide.

Self-dealing under a power of attorney is a clear violation of the fiduciary relationship. Many POA forms allow the principal to state whether self-gifting is permitted, but transferring major assets, such as a house, to your own account can be treated as felony theft under state laws. Since most principals are elderly, abuse is not always reported, and efforts are under way in many states to ...

I love my wife, and I just want her to be happy. And Linda is the woman who gave birth to my wife, so I love her too. Certainly I must do what is best for them, I just want to see them happy, so for the first time since I met my mother-in-law, I bow my head and touch my lips to her feet in pure adoration and worship, and not fear.
