I truly felt lost while reading Lost by Gregory Maguire. This is the second book I've read by this author so I can say that I really don't care for his style of writing. Unfortunately, I have all his other books to read. Critics call his prose "rich" and maybe it is that but I find it confusing to point of sheer frustration sometimes.

Gregory Maguire's Wicked is my all-time favorite book, so I'll buy just about any novel he puts out. My enjoyment of Lost fell somewhere between Wicked (which I adored and just recently finished re-reading) and Confessions of an Ugly Step-Sister (which I liked but was a bit disappointed with).
